

The Evening Star

PORTER & HARDING, Publishers.

SUBSCRIPTION 50 CENTS PER MONTH.
$5.00 per Year.

5 cts. per Copy at News Stands.

25 Cents.

Desiring to increase our subscription list to 600 during the present month we have decided to take subscription at 25 cents per month, or 10 cents per week. The latter must be paid in advance.

A GREAT deal of interest is being manifested in the proposed cotton factory. This is the way to go at it. Dr. Allred has opened the list with a $500 donation of land. Let us have others. Dr. Drawford will give $100 cash. We are going to have a cotton factory.

FRANK E. HARRIS, editor of the Banner, returned from Washington Thursday night, where it is supposed he went to interview Senator Call and Mr. Eckles with the view of getting the appointment to the receivership of the defunct First National bank of this city.

OVER IN CITRUS.

A Citrus county minister, at the close of his sermon a few weeks ago, made the following announcement:

"Next Thursday we will have a doin's at the lake, at which time we will baptize three adults and one adulteress. On Thursday night we will have a huckleberry and ice cream festival, and all the sisters who give milk are requested to come early."—Brooksville Star.

NOTICE.

Owing to the fact that the Witness hall is undergoing repairs, there will be no public entertainment of the Ocala Literary and Debating society until Aug. 16 next. A business meeting will be held next Friday night, at which all members are requested to be present. EDW. T. HELVENSTON, J. IMBODEN FINNEY, President, Secretary.

BEFORE HIS HONOR.

The following subjects were up before the mourner's bench yesterday morning:

Abram Alexander, for beating his wife over the head, $5 and cost.

David Eastman, for shooting a pistol. Not evidence enough to convict.

Two young white prize fighters. One discharged and the other fined $2 and costs.

Additional Local.

Ocklawaha avenue is now a thing of beauty and a joy for—several months to come, at least, the weeds having been cut and hauled off by Street Commissioner Dodson. The city cannot spend money more judiciously than in this kind of work. It will promote the health of the city, beautify the streets, and destroy this harbor for insects and reptiles. Let there be less weeds.
